

Corporate Transactions & Antitrust

From due diligence to Second Requests, we can take you through the entire M&A lifecycle with a fully integrated client experience that bridges contract analytics and eDiscovery.

Compliance was founded in 1997 to deliver a better approach to Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Second Requests—we continue to lead the way with technology-driven contract analytics and review solutions to support due diligence, litigation, and investigations. We deliver insight, efficiency, and speed to help you make more informed M&A decisions and respond to antitrust actions with confidence.

A TRUE END-TO-END SOLUTION

From initial due diligence to inform your M&A strategy to quickly responding to an antitrust challenge, we have solutions to help you get a handle on the content and obligations within your contracts, review and evaluate large volumes of complex data, and produce information to stakeholders in a timely and effective manner.

AI-POWERED WORKFLOWS

We leverage cutting-edge eDiscovery and contract analytics technologies and battle-tested DOJ/FTC-proven workflows to deliver critical information and insights, maximize efficiencies, and decrease review population, while increasing review speed and QC accuracy.

INDUSTRY-VETERAN EXPERTS

We bring together some of the most highly skilled and seasoned project managers, contract attorney reviewers, data scientists, analytics experts, and consultants in the industry, delivering a team of experts who can help you make more informed decisions and meet deadlines with confidence.

Second requests are second nature to us.
